Classical music on your doorstep

FIONA HOSFORD

Fiona studied the piano, the violin and singing in her early years, but it was her love of the harp which encouraged her to undertake advanced work on the instrument. She obtained an LRSM in harp performance and also has a BA(Hons) in Textile Design from Brunel University.

Fiona has extensive performing experience, having played throughout the UK and abroad for over 20 years. Contracts have included residencies, as well as playing for well-known venues and companies in the UK, on cruise ships and internationally. Her vast repertoire ranges from classical, film, folk and contemporary to jazz.

Formerly based in East Sussex, Fiona has recently moved to Worcestershire. She enjoys both performing as a soloist and collaborating with other musicians.

Music Box Wealden is the brainchild of local pianist William Hancox. After many years performing, recording and teaching throughout the UK and around the world, he became convinced of the importance of developing a model which makes it easier to bring together musicians and concertgoers in their own communities.

Localism and sustainability are central to the Music Box vision. We provide a varied programme of classical music to all kinds of venues across the area, with many performers drawn from the wide pool of talented professional musicians who live locally.

We're looking to make a contribution to the musical health of our community and help to make sure that this vital part of our culture is still alive and well for future generations to enjoy.
